SUMMARY

I am a third year bachelor of ITMO University. I am doing Competitive Programming and have achieved a lot, participating in numerous Olympiads during my school and university years, and I am still going to achieve more. Competitive Programming made me love Programming and Computer Science, so I decided to apply to ITMO University. My interests are C/C++ developing and Computer Science, so I am very much into them. But I always like to learn something new, gain new experience, get to know new technologies, etc. I have an experience as C++ developer intern and as R&D engineer.
